

COMMISSION NAMED FOR WEIGHING MAILS

Complete Record in Pounds
Must Be Kept for Six Months.

The Postmaster General has appointed a commission to supervise the temporary weighing of the mails, as provided for by a measure passed at the last session of Congress. The weighing will extend over the period from July 1 to December 31.

The law provides that a record shall be made of the weight in pounds, respectively, of first-class, second-class, free, paid-at-the-pound rate, and transient, third-class, and fourth-class matter, and all franked and penalty matter and the equipment carried in connection therewith. Also, record must be made of the average haul of the mail of the different classes, calculated in thirty-day periods.

It is also provided that a record be made of the revenue received from each of the classes and subclasses of mail, and also the average load of the postal cars.

The findings of the commission must be reported by the Postmaster General to Congress by May 1, 1908. Three hundred thousand dollars was appropriated for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the act.

The commission named by the Postmaster General consists of Joseph Stewart, assistant attorney, J. H. Crew, superintendent of division of railway adjustment, John W. Holliday, chief clerk of the Bureau of the Second Assistant Postmaster General, W. R. Spillman, superintendent of the rural delivery division, Bureau of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, and Maj. P. L. Little, of the division of postoffice inspectors. Mr. Stewart is chairman of the commission, and will direct the work.

In order to provide a clerical force for the work the Civil Service Commission is at present holding examinations in this city. The examinations commenced on the first day of the month, and owing to the large number of applicants will not be completed before Thursday, a portion of the applicants being examined each day. About 1,500 applications have been filed with the Civil Service Commission, but it is thought that not over 100 clerks will be necessary for the work.

The commission has secured quarters in the Orway Building for the month of May, after which other quarters will be secured. It is expected that the commission will be able to gather important statistics which will enable Congress to give more careful consideration to rates of postage on certain classes of matter, and also to the rates of pay for the railroads.

Unusual and Effective Work in Some of the Designs.

Another large crowd today visited the Veerhoff Galleries in F street, where an exhibition of posters, made by pupils of the public schools, is being held. The posters are in the rear gallery and completely cover the walls. Teachers, parents, and children were numbered among the visitors.

The exhibit, which opened yesterday, will continue through today and tomorrow, when the decision of the judges will be announced.

To the lay visitor it is difficult to select the most attractive poster in the room. Each high school has sent a number of designs, and the collection is a proof of the progress of the pupils. Many of the ideas are unusual and most effective.

COURT ORDERS ISSUED IN MARTIN BROS.' CASE

Justice Gould, of Court No. 2, today dismissed without prejudice the petition of the American National Bank, asking the court to direct receivers of Martin Brothers to turn over to the bank the assignment of the life insurance policies on the life of Thomas R. Martin, which the latter assigned to the bank.

In Equity Court No. 1, Justice Claiborne directed receivers of the Martin Brothers to turn over to the registry of the court three notes made by James A. Winchberger and belonging to Mrs. Marion J. Martin. These notes were found among the papers of the Martin Brothers by the receivers. They are for $500, $100 and $50, respectively. The petition was filed by Mrs. Martin.
